

God Is Our Refuge (Ps 46)

- Vs. 1 "God is our refuge and strength a very present help in trouble.
- Vs. 2 Therefore will we not fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea;
- Vs. 3 Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof."*

Analysis

Even from the fall of Adam's glory following the sin of disobedience, the LORD God had since begun to call the entire human race to His refuge. "Call To Refuge" is the predicted word of knowledge for the churches in the year 2001. The modern technological developments, posing threats in several fronts: and the increase of deaths by wars and loudness of crimes in general; and increased agonies of wild fire, hurricanes, cyclones, typhoon, earthquakes and compounded natural disasters seem to suggest the biblical predicted signs of the end of the world as the Lord said (Matt 24:4-31 and Daniel 12 vs 4). Beware, we have not come to tell anyone that the world shall end up in such and such a day. No. God who said the world has an end, knows when ...

We are rather telling you that the Lord has come for our rescue and to offer us a refuge in Himself. The first three scriptures above from Psalm 46, simplifies God's unflinching now and eternal provisions for mankind in general.

What We Must Know

- (i) That God is our refuge.
Analysis: That is, He is our shelter from pursuit of danger and troubles.
- (ii) That God is our strength.
Analysis: That is, He is our ability in the place of our weakness and the joy of our confidence.
- (iii) That God is a present help in trouble times.
Analysis: That is why He says, "call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and you shall glorify me" (Ps 50:15). He is a present Help confirms His willingness and readiness as an instant Deliverer. In Isaiah ch. 41 vs 10 the Lord says: "Fear you not; for I am with you (if you are for Him): be not dismayed—confused; for I am your God; I will strengthen you; yes, I will help you, I will uphold you with the right hand of my righteousness." We are in the position to believe the position of God as our camp of refuge.

Position Of The Believers

- (i) Therefore will we not fear
- (ii) Though the earth be removed
- (iii) Though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea.

This is faith resisting the horrific and terrific challenges of situations. There is assurance and unmoveable confidence in the unflinching will of God. It is God's will to do all He has pronounced to do. Our position is to believe it no matter conditional threats. Don't jitter and do not be afraid. Only the Lord you shall fear (Isa 8:12-13). Why must you believe what God says? Because your faith comes from His word. Faith overcomes the world. So have faith in God.

- (iv) Though the waters roar with troubles
 - a) God is our Refuge
- (v) Though the mountains shake with the swellings
 - b) God is our Refuge
